

LAPTOP ROCKERS

Laptoprockers is a cutting edge webzine featuring topics related to the changing world of music appreciation, production and dissemination. Regular features include exclusive interviews with artists, interesting and relevant music industry news, informative articles about music technology and production, and the most comprehensive listing of current remix competitions. The Music section of the webzine offers sneak previews of some of the freshest music by up-and-coming artists.

With thousands of unique weekly visitors, Laptoprockers worked with Mentor Records in the pre-launch phase of the Sweetwater World Music Remix competition to reach out to a diverse range of global producers, Djs, and musicians.
